STRING ORCHESTRA - Ansgarius Aylward

Ansgarius Aylward, Assistant Concertmaster of the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra and Music Director of the Canisius College Chamber Orchestra, began his musical studies on piano at age seven. Violin entered the picture soon thereafter and he was fortunate early on to study with Richard Burgin, Concertmaster of the Boston Symphony and himself a student of the famed Russian pedagogue Leopold Auer. In his teens Mr. Aylward joined the Greater Boston Youth Symphony Orchestra as Concertmaster. With GBYSO he performed for the first time at Carnegie Hall and at the White House for President and Mrs. Kennedy. After graduation from the historic Boston Latin School he was awarded a full scholarship to attend the New England Conservatory of Music. While there he made an extensive State Department sponsored tour of the former Soviet Union with concerts in the eight largest capital cities. After receiving his Bachelor of Music degree from NEC, Mr. Aylward earned his Master of Music degree from Yale University, School of Music where he studied violin with Broadus Erle, leader of the New Music and Yale Quartets, and conducting with Gustav Meier.

Mr. Aylward's early professional career included performances at the Norfolk Chamber Music Festival, Tanglewood Festival, New College Music Festival in Sarasota, Colorado Philharmonic Orchestra and four seasons with the Montreal Symphony Orchestra. In 1973 Michael Tilson Thomas invited him to join the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra. With the BPO Mr. Aylward has appeared as soloist multiple times, performing both standard concerti (Mendelssohn, Bach, Mozart, Haydn, Vivaldi, Bottesini) and 20th century works by Nicholas Flagello and John Corigliano. He has been Concertmaster of the Ars Nova Musicians' Chamber Orchestra led by his colleague and long-time stand partner Marylouise Nanna - with Ars Nova he has appeared annually for many years as soloist on the popular "Viva Vivaldi!" Festival. Prior to his appointment as Music Director of the Canisius College Chamber Orchestra, Mr. Aylward served as Music Director of the Greater Buffalo Youth Orchestra. During his tenure the GBYO initiated a series of cross-border exchange concerts with the St. Catharines (Ontario) Youth Orchestra, started the GBYO Music Camp, began the GBYO Piano Concerto Competition, made two educational videos and was showcased on various TV broadcasts including a John F. Kennedy commemorative program on "CBS Sunday Morning" with Charles Kuralt. In the 1970's and 80's Mr. Aylward was the leader and founding member of the Nichols String Quartet. Since 1987 he has been guest soloist and recording artist with the Stuttgart Musik Forum in Germany. In 2001 he founded the critically acclaimed "Chamber Music on Elmwood" Festival for which he serves as Director and principal violinist. During the summer months, after teaching at the Bravo Chamber Music Workshop with his colleagues from "Chamber Music on Elmwood" and the BPO, Mr. Aylward enjoys chess and hiking in Acadia National Park.

WOMEN'S CHORUS - Dr. Patricia O'Toole

Dr. Patti O'Toole currently lives in Columbus Ohio and is the Artistic Director for the Con Brio Children's Choir. She received her masters in choral conducting and Ph.D. in curriculum and instruction from the University of Wisconsin, Madison. She previously taught at SUNY Buffalo and The Ohio State University. Patti has a passion for world music and has studied at the University of Legon, West Africa; the University of Limrick, Ireland and at the world music center in Papete, Tahiti. She is an international speaker and has published numerous music education articles and one book, Shaping Sound Musicians. Patti is currently the Vice President for Marketing and Communications at YWCA Columbus, a position that combines her passion for women's issues and servant leadership.

MIXED CHORUS - Dr. Victoria Furby

Victoria J. Furby is the director of the Buffalo State Chamber Choir and the Buffalo State vocal jazz ensemble, Elmwood Swing. She has been an invited guest conductor and clinician for honor choirs and choral workshops both within and outside New York State and is also active in professional development for practicing music educators regarding choral rehearsing and conducting. Dr. Furby is also the Coordinator of Graduate Music Education at SUNY-Buffalo State and she teaches courses in the innovative and fully online Master of Music Education degree, undergraduate courses in Aural Perceptions and Secondary Choral Methods, and supervises student teachers. Prior to her appointment at Buffalo State, Dr. Furby finished her graduate coursework at The Ohio State University, focusing on music education and choral conducting. During her public school teaching career, Dr. Furby taught junior high and high school choirs that received superior ratings at both local and state levels.

In addition to her teaching and conducting pursuits, Dr. Furby is actively pursuing a research agenda related to sight-singing instruction and assessment at both the secondary and collegiate levels. She has presented her research at numerous conferences including the NYSSMA Convention, the OMEA Convention, MENC Regional and National Conferences, ACDA Regional and National Conferences, the SMTE National Conference and the ISSOTL International Convention.

CONCERT BAND - Dr. Sarah McKoin

Dr. Sarah McKoin serves as the Director of Bands, Associate Professor of Conducting, and Chair of the Conducting Division at Texas Tech University. Her responsibilities include Conductor and Musical Director of the TTU Symphonic Wind Ensemble, administrating the graduate program in wind conducting, teaching conducting and wind literature, and overseeing all facets of the University band program which includes 5 concert bands, the 400 member Goin' Band and other athletic bands.

Under Dr. McKoin's direction, the Symphonic Wind Ensemble has twice performed at the Texas Music Educators Association Conference, as well as being featured at the Southwest Regional Conference for the College Band Director's National Association in Las Cruces, NM. Dr. McKoin's ensemble recorded the world premiere of Chakra on Narong Prancharoen's CD entitled "Phenomenon" released in 2009 on the Albany label and a recording of the wind music of Chen Yi is in production. Additionally, Dr. McKoin is the newly appointed Artistic Director for the chamber ensemble "(r)EVOLUTION" as part of the professional wind ensemble Concordia Santa Fe in Santa Fe, NM.

Prior to her appointment at Texas Tech, Dr. McKoin was the Director of Bands at the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music and held appointments at the State University of New York at Buffalo and SUNY Fredonia. Additionally, McKoin spent nine summers in residence on the conducting faculty at the Brevard Music Center in Brevard, North Carolina as the Director of the Transylvania Wind Ensemble, and has taught at Interlochen Arts Academy.

Dr. McKoin maintains an active schedule as a guest conductor and clinician and has traveled extensively throughout the United States and abroad. Recently, she was the conductor for the Asian Pacific American School Honor Band in Guangzhou, China comprised of 100 students from Korea, Hong Kong, China, Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur, Shanghai and other Southeast Asian cities. She has guest conducted in Taipei, Taiwan and has traveled to Tel Aviv, Israel to serve as producer for the world premiere recording of Roberto Sierra's Fantasia Correliana with the Castellani-Andriaccio guitar duo.

Dr. McKoin holds her Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Texas at Austin as well as degrees from Wichita State University and Michigan State University. She has served as President of the Southwest Division of the College Band Director's National Association as well as President of the Big 12 Band Director's Association. She is a member of TMEA, TBA, Phi Beta Mu, Pi Kappa Lambda and holds honorary memberships in Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE - Jay Ashby

Jay Ashby is a five-time GRAMMY winning producer and has received multiple nominations in other categories, including Arranging and Engineering. A “consummate musician” whose talents “know few bounds” (Pittsburgh Tribune-Review), Ashby has performed, toured, and recorded with some of the most renowned jazz artists in the industry for over 25 years. As a member of The United Nation Orchestra, a group originally put together by Dizzy Gillespie, and Dizzy’s Alumni All-Star Big Band, Ashby forged long lasting musical relationships with many jazz greats including Paquito D’Rivera, Jon Faddis, James Moody, Jimmy Heath, Randy Brecker, and Slide Hampton. Through his association with trumpet master Claudio Roditi, Ashby developed a strong affinity for Brazilian Jazz, which led to many years as a soloist with Astrud Gilberto, as well as arrangements, tours, and recordings with a number of other Brazilian artists including Tania Maria, Kenia, Ivan Lins, Trio Da Paz, and even appearances with two of the “fathers of Bossa Nova,” Joao Gilberto and Antonio Carlos Jobim.

Ashby’s work as a trombonist, a percussionist, an arranger and a producer can be heard on over 175 recordings, covering a continuum of styles from jazz and pop to world music. Ashby’s most recent release, Mistaken Identity (MCG Jazz), with fellow trombonist Steve Davis, received critical acclaim within the jazz industry, remaining on the national air-play list for an unprecedented 16 weeks and reaching as high as #2. A few notable examples that include Ashby’s work as an arranger are ; Live in Paris with Paul Simon, Beyond Brooklyn with Herbie Mann and Phil Woods, A Day Like This with New York Voices, and two of Nancy Wilson’s GRAMMY winners - Turned to Blue and R.S.V.P (Rare Songs, Very Personal).

His versatility as a pop trombonist, percussionist, and arranger began in 1999 with pop icon Paul Simon, with whom Ashby has toured and performed extensively both on stage and television. Appearances with Simon include the Today Show, Saturday Night Live, The Late Show with David Letterman, in addition to performing alongside James Taylor, Stevie Wonder, and a host of other artists honoring Paul Simon at the 2007 Gershwin Award Show. Most recently, Ashby participated in the star studded HBO broadcast of the 25th Anniversary of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame at Madison Square Garden.

A YAMAHA artist for many years, Ashby conducts master classes, residencies, and clinics worldwide, including annual events in Germany, Brazil, and Russia. He holds degrees from Ithaca College and Duquesne University, and is currently on faculty at Oberlin Conservatory where he serves as Associate Professor of Jazz Arranging.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA - Joshua Roach

Joshua Roach leads a multi-faceted career as conductor, pedagogue, and composer. Over the past decade, Roach worked throughout Southern California. He served as the music director of the Pacific Symphony Youth Wind Ensemble, assistant/cover conductor for Pacific Symphony, Downey Symphony, Young Musicians Foundation Debut Orchestra, and the University of Southern California Thornton Symphony. In 2011 and 2012, Roach was co-conductor of the USC Thornton Concert Orchestra and guest conductor for the Thornton Chamber Orchestra and the Los Angeles Winds. During 2014, he served as interim director of bands at California Lutheran University. Since 2011, Roach has taught at the Idyllwild Summer Arts music program working as an assistant conductor with the large ensembles. Joshua has worked internationally with the Irvine Young Concert Artists in Korea and China and also as assistant conductor for the Landesjugendorchester of Baden-Württemberg, a highly selective youth orchestra in Southern Germany.

During his time in Los Angeles, Roach worked as a freelance musician for companies such as the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Turner Classic Films, DreamWorks Pictures, Fox, PBS, USA Network and various recording studio orchestras in the area.

An alumnus of the University of Southern California Thornton School of Music, Joshua holds a bachelor's degree in performance, graduate certificate in scoring for motion picture and television, and master's degree in instrumental conducting. Currently he is pursuing a doctoral degree in wind conducting at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor where he conducts the U of M Band Alumni Association Concert Band and also works with members of the Concert and Symphony Bands.

Please silence all cellular phones. Turn off all portable games and music players. We respectfully request that audience members refrain from texting during the performance.

Restrooms are located in the back of the hall on the lower level.

Both concerts are being professionally recorded in compliance with copyright laws. Copies can be pre-ordered in the lobby. NYSSMA Regulations and Copyright Laws prohibit the private use of video or audio recording equipment during the concert.

No flash photography is permitted while an ensemble is performing. A flash should never be used in a darkened auditorium. Ensembles will be held on stage at the conclusion of their performance for photographs, and you are welcome to move about the auditorium to take pictures at that time.

If you must leave the concert hall, please move during applause or stage changes so as not to disturb the performance, other members of the audience, or the professional recording.

After the concert, please exit the concert hall through the main lobby or designated exit doors. Please do not exit through back stage areas.
