Mission Statement of Collegiate Chapters of NYSSMA

NAfME-Collegiate/Collegiate-NYSSMA serves as a collegiate division of the New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) which is a state affiliate of the National Association for Music Education (NAfME). NAfME-Collegiate/Collegiate-NYSSMA promotes and endorses professional development for pre-service music educators, seeks to increase its membership and support, and advocates for music education in public schools.

- Professional development activities include workshops, in-services, conferences and certificate-based training at the local, regional, state, national and international levels
- The benefits of membership include developing an awareness of the roles that state, national and international organizations that specifically focused on music education and music teaching and learning play in the lives of students, teachers, families, and communities.
- In addition, membership includes representation within the organization and the opportunity to attend and participate in all professional gatherings associated with it.
- Members advocate for the importance of music in the lives of people the world over, especially in schools and do this with the assistance of the state, national and international organizations associated with it.

Mission Statement of Collegiate Executive Board

NAfME-Collegiate/Collegiate-NYSSMA also includes student members who are appointed by statewide election to lead the state's collegiates. Collegiate Executive Board members serve at the behest of the state's collegiates whose terms run from May 1st to May 1st each year.

The Collegiate Executive Board serves as representatives to its collegiate members and seeks to develop a vision, an identity, and expand the culture of this component of the statewide organization.

The Collegiate Executive Board also works to support the mission of the Collegiate Chapters of NYSSMA.

ARTICLE I: Name and Affiliation

Section 5

It is the responsibility of officers completing their term(s) to ensure the newly-elected officer's preparation before the completion of their term.

ARTICLE VII: Professional Activities

Section 1

NYSSMA Winter Conference

During the first weekend after Thanksgiving the New York State School Music Association presents its annual Winter Conference, usually located in Rochester, NY. It is expected that all state collegiate officers attend this event because they assist in the following capacities: Serve as conference session presiders, room monitors, ushers, staff the collegiate check-in table, manage paperwork associated with conference scholarships, transportation reimbursements and any other tasks as determined by the NYSSMA Executive Council.

There will be an annual meeting for all NAFME-Collegiate/Collegiate-NYSSMA members to be held at the NYSSMA Winter Conference.

- At this meeting, Officers will present their goals for the year, promote networking among NAFME-Collegiate members, vote on any constitution amendments, and discuss chapter events and activities as collected by the Province Representatives.
- Scholarships to attend the conference will be provided to students based prior year's membership and assigned by the NAFME-Collegiate/Collegiate-NYSSMA Advisor.
- Reimbursement forms will be presented at this meeting for travel costs associated with carpooling students to the NYSSMA Winter Conference.

Section 2

New York State Summer Music Conference

During the second weekend in August, the New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) presents its annual NYS Summer Music Conference, usually located in Albany, NY in collaboration with COMEA, NYCDA, NYASTA, NYSBDA, NYSCAME, and J.W. PEPPER.

Section 3

Biennial State Collegiate Conference (Even years)

During even-numbered years (1988, 1990, 2010, etc.), a collegiate chapter in New York presents the State Collegiate Conference. The host institution for the subsequent conference is determined at the collegiate business meeting during the current conference.

Section 4

Biennial Eastern Regional NAFME Conference (Odd years)

During odd-numbered years (1987, 1989, 2009, etc.), the Northeast Region of the National Association for Music Educations holds a biennial meeting. There are no specific Collegiate-NYSSMA Executive Boards responsibilities at this event, unless requested by the NYSSMA Executive Council.

- Regional members of Eastern NAFME:
  - Maryland
  - Pennsylvania
  - Delaware
  - New Jersey
  - Connecticut
  - New York
  - Rhode Island
  - Massachusetts
  - Vermont
  - New Hampshire
  - Maine
  - Europe

ARTICLE VIII: Amendments

Section 1

Amendments to this constitution must be presented at the annual Executive Board meeting by either an Officer or online request from a NAFME-Collegiate member one month prior to the Winter Conference. Voting on the proposed amendment(s) shall be completed at the annual NAFME-Collegiate member meeting. The proposed amendment changes will be distributed to the chapters in writing.

Section 2

Amendments may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the membership present.

Section 3

All amendments shall take effect in the semester following the semester in which the changes are made.

Section 4

It is the responsibility of the Executive Board to review this constitution annually and propose amendments as needed.

ARTICLE IX: Governance

This constitution, along with NAFME policies, shall serve as the governing document for this organization.
